

UPDATE CORONAVIRUS

Shanghai some lines have opened up but with skeletal staff – terminal operations have resumed at Yang Shaan and Wai Gao qiao – however terminal facing plug shortage for reefer units.

Ningbo still under closure awaiting permission though terminal operations have commenced – outside depots closed but units can be released from terminal.

Qingdao open so also terminal operations skeletal staff in the office but people working off site – home and have access to our system though response may be slow.

Tianjin open so also terminal operations skeletal staff in the office but people working off site – home and have access to our system though response may be slow.

Xiamen open so also terminal operations skeletal staff in the office but people working off site – home and have access to our system though response may be slow.

Chongqing office closed but booking acceptance and equipment release on going – people working from home.

Labor returning would be contained – Guangdong – Zhejiang – Henan and Jiangsu the four major manufacturing hubs have also been effected – 30 million SME which generate an estimated 80% of the national jobs are struggling – partial lockdown in Nanjing Jiangsu province Zhengzhou Henan province and Hangzhou in Zhejiang province – some provinces are not going to allow people from the infected areas to enter unless they have been through the quarantine period.

Foxconn were to reopen their plant in Shenzhen but Reuters reported permission not granted in Zhengzhou only 10% of the employees did return – supply chains in the automotive segment so also in the high tech will be disrupted.

Hong Kong commercial offices building now take temperature of people working in the premises – buildings – companies have people working from home or some companies have teams working in alternate days so that the work force.

US government staff - consular staff voluntary commence to leave Hong Kong but the consulate is still open.

Common and industry sources

